SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1797.

Whitehall, February 26.

LETTERS, of which the following are Extracts, have been this Day received from the Right Honorable Lord Milford, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Pembroke, by His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Haverfordweſt, February 24, 1797,
Six o'Clock A. M.

SINCE I had the Honor of writing laſt to your Grace by Expreſs, I have received Information of the French Ships having ſailed and left Three Hundred Men behind, who have ſurrendered themſelves Priſoners. The great Spirit and Loyalty that the Gentlemen and Peaſantry have ſhewn on this Occaſion exceeds Deſcription. Many Thouſands of the latter aſſembled, armed with Pikes and Scythes, and attacked the Enemy, previous to the Arrival of the Troops that were ſent againſt them.

Haverfordweſt, February 24,
Nine o'Clock, P. M.

I HAVE the Honor and Pleaſure to inform your Grace, that the whole of the French Troops, amounting to near Fourteen Hundred Men, have ſurrendered, and are now on their March to Haverfordweſt.

I have taken the firſt Opportunity of announcing this good News to your Grace, and ſhall have the Honor of writing again to your Grace, by To-morrow's Poſt.
